

FOODsmith

personal chef information

Thank you for considering FOODsmith for your dining and entertaining needs. We utilize time honored cooking methods to create simple dishes, rich in flavor. Our goal is to create memorable meals for your group.

Please note that our sample menus include both "everyday" items that you can enjoy when you want to enjoy a casual meal in the comforts of your own home (or home away from home) as well as more "special occasion" items for those times that you hope to indulge, spoil yourself a little and make an impression upon your guests.

We will assist you to coordinate all rental needs and plan a custom menu. Our refreshing hospitality along with our thoughtfully created menus will combine to create a positive memory for you and your guests.

customization

Please read our sample menus with an open mind and rest assured that we would appreciate nothing more than to work with you to create a custom menu tailored to meet your individual taste and style.

Additionally we are sensitive to our guests' dietary needs. We are experienced at creating menus that accommodate your personal preferences and restrictions as well as exceed your expectations in regards to quality. Almost all menu items are available Gluten free, Soy free, Trans Fat free, Refined Sugar free, etc. Please do not hesitate to inquire about these and other options.

drop off meal average pricing

Delivery charges begin at $25 for locations in Edwards, Avon and Beaver Creek. Holiday deliveries charges are $50. Some items may not be available for delivery. Items are delivered cold in disposable containers with heating instructions.

However, we do have a $250 food minimum for drop offs in the winter, during the slow times of the year we are pretty lax about this, but business really requires us to enforce this during the high season, we sincerely appreciate your understanding. (please see sample drop off menu for specific item pricing www.foodsmithvail.com)

additional pricing information

All chef prepared dinner prices include the buffet serving vessels appropriate to the menu items. China, glass and silver are not included.

If coordination of outside rentals is required, we would be happy to assist you in creating a list of the items that you need and in getting in touch with the right people to place your order!

All FOODsmith events are fully staffed. We will work with you to determine the amount of staff required to provide both hospitality and service for your event.

Food and beverage are subject to tax and service charges (if applicable).
A 25% deposit will be required on all orders to start the sales process.

FOODsmith accepts cash, checks, MasterCard, Visa and Amex, we do however charge 3.5% of the total for credit card usage.

Prices are subject to change and minimum quantities are applicable on most items.

ordering and cancellations

All orders require a minimum of 48 hours advance notice.
We accept orders with less advance notice, but substitutions may be necessary.

Orders can be cancelled up to 48 hours in advance with a 25% penalty.
Full payment will be required if an order is cancelled within 48 hours.

alcohol

Colorado state liquor laws do not allow FOODsmith to provide alcohol. However, we are happy to coordinate liquor, beer and wine orders through our local business contact, Beaver Liquors in Avon, Colorado. Typically we will introduce you to the owner, David, then we will fill him in on the menu that you have chosen (if you would like to pair wines), then he will communicate with you about your personal preferences, desired price point, delivery location, etc.!
